

The FAA's Small Business Development Program Group has a small business database "Source-Net," which is accessible to persons that are seeking small business sources of supply.

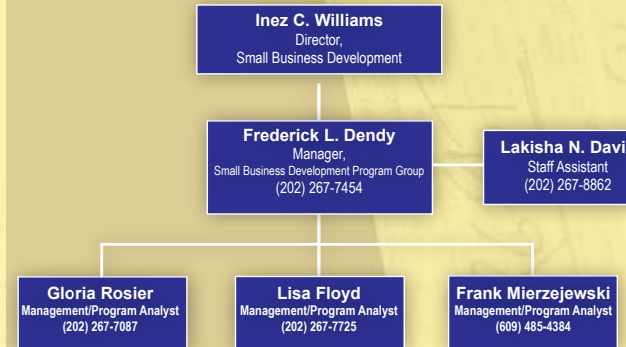

Federal Aviation Administration

Small Business Development Program Group

"BUILDING LONG-TERM BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS AND BROADENING OUR CONTRACTOR BASE"

WHO WE ARE

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Small Business Development Program Group is responsible for:

- FAA's policy and program on the utilization of small businesses, women-owned small businesses, small businesses owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, and businesses owned and controlled by service disabled veterans
- Establishing mechanisms for monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of the small business program; and
- Ensuring FAA-wide implementation and accomplishment of small business program objectives.

GOALS

Annual direct contract and subcontracting goals are established for small businesses, small businesses owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, women-owned small businesses, and service-disabled veteran-owned small businesses.

COUNSELING

The Small Business Development Program Group counsels firms on how to market their services or products to the FAA and assist firms in resolving pre-award and post-award issues. The Small Business Development Program Group provides procurement guidance to agency procurement decision makers.

OUTREACH PROGRAMS

Small business forums are conducted to keep the small business community abreast of pending changes to the FAA's Acquisition Management System policy/guidance and to provide an avenue for open dialog between the FAA and industry. Such forums include:

- Expositions/Marketplaces
- Workshops
- Conferences
- Seminars
- Symposiums
